No. 18-cr-10053-STA

ORDER STAYING CASE

On November 7, 2019, the Court entered an order directing the parties to show why the Court should not stay the proceedings in this case pending a final decision of the United States Supreme Court in Kansas v. Glover, No. 18-556. Both parties have filed their position papers on the stay. The United States opposes a stay, arguing that the facts in this case distinguish it from the facts in Glover. Defendant DaCarlos Watkins requests that the Court stay the case until Glover is decided. The Court finds that a stay would be a proper exercise of its discretion under the circumstances. Therefore, the proceedings are hereby stayed until the Supreme Court has issued its opinion in Glover. The January 27, 2020 jury trial is continued, and the time will be excluded. If Defendant wishes to be heard further on the exclusion of time issue, Defendant should file a notice or request for hearing within 10 days of the entry of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
